of an agriculturist's life. When he was twenty-seven years old, he left home, and with his brother, Lewis, and his brother-in-law, Aaron Staley, bought the home which he now owns. It then consisted of 312 acres. Later Mr. Horman bought his partners' interests and in the settlement 147 acres were sold. The remaining 165 acres is good land, and under a high state of cultivation. This farm was once owned by the McDonalds. The previous owner before Mr. Horman was William Lawson, from whom it was purchased in the spring of 1897. The brick used in the construction of the house was burnt on the place and the barn was erected by Mr. Lawson about thirty years ago. Mr. Horman has increased the desirability of the place by improving it. He has erected a fine two-story frame house with thirteen rooms, one of the finest homes of this section, and improved all his outbuildings, making this one of the best improved farms of the county. He is strictly a self-made man.

THE LATE EDWARD T. GETZENDANNER, a well-known farmer who resided near Poolesville, Md., eldest son of Daniel and Mary (Derr) Getzendanner, was born in Frederick County, Md., January 22, 1825.

FIRST SETTLEMENTS OF GERMANS IN MARYLAND—THE GETZENDANNER FAMILY.

Christian Getzendanner, or, as sometimes found in the old records, Kitchadanner, was born in Switzerland, but took up his residence in Schiefferstadt, Germany, where, in 1723, he met and married Ann Barbara Brunner. In 1729 he came with the Brunner family to America, landing in Philadelphia, Pa., September 15, (See Rupp's 30,000 names, page 16, in the Library in Harrisburg, Pa.,) and settled about two miles west of the spot where the city of Frederick was afterwards laid out. He purchased from the Indians, a tract of 3000 acres extending from the foot of the mountains, where Fairview now stands, easterly towards the Monocacy River. Mr. Getzendanner relied upon the title obtained from the Indians, but, ascertaining that a Mr. O'Neal had obtained a patent for about 1000 acres on the eastern part of his land, his eyes were opened to the necessity of obtaining a better title to his possessions. He accordingly applied for a patent and, on April 17, 1754, succeeded in securing a patent for 930 acres, on a part of which his original settlement had been made. The first house, which was built of logs, stood until about thirty years ago. The descendants of Mr. Getzendanner intermarried with the families of the Schleys, Kemps and Buckeys. Christian Getzendanner died in 1766, bequeathing the land to his son, Adam.

Adam Getzendanner died in 1783, and by his will divided his land among his three sons: John, Christian, and Jacob.

John Getzendanner, the great-grandfather of Mrs. E. D. Shriner, who was the eldest, receiving the part on which his father resided. At his death, in 1841, he divided his land called "Adam's Content," among his three sons: Johnathan, Daniel and Abraham.

Johnathan Getzendanner was married to Elizabeth, daughter of John Derr. Dr. John W. Getzendanner, of Middletown, Md., is the grandson, and Dr. Harvey Getzendanner, of Frederick, Md., the great-grandson of Johnathan and Elizabeth (Derr) Getzendanner.

Abraham Getzendanner was married to Mary, daughter of Peter Buckey. These brothers had large families, but their descendants, with few exceptions, left Frederick County and settled in other parts of Maryland, Virginia, and others of the Southern and Western States.

Daniel Getzendanner was married to Mary, daughter of John Derr and a sister of Elizabeth Derr (Mrs. Johnathan Getzendanner). Their eldest son, Edward T. Getzendanner, great-great-grandson of the original settlers, Christian Getzendanner, spent his whole life in farming. In politics, he was a life-long Democrat. In religion, he was a member of the Reformed Church. Edward T. Getzendanner was married to Catharine Schaeffer. JOSEPH HAMILTON HUMMER, a well-known farmer, cultivates one of the largest tracts of any man in Walkersville District. He has charge of the two Winebrenner farms, one containing 100 acres and the other 212 acres. The latter is the original Winebrenner homestead, and here it was that Rev. John Winebrenner, founder of the Church of God, was born. Mr. Hummer was born one mile above Woodsboro, Frederick County, September 21, 1857. He is a son of Joseph and Margaret (Eyler) Hummer. C4149

Henry Hummer, the grandfather of our subject, spent nearly his entire life in the vicinity of Woodsboro, Frederick County. He was a day laborer. He was twice married. By his first wife, he was the father of three children: Joseph; Susan, married John Albaugh, and both are deceased; and Adam, deceased, married a Miss Weaver. By his second marriage, he was the father of two children: John, deceased, married Lavinia Eppard; and Harriet Ann, married Benjamin Holt, and lives in Lewistown.

Joseph Hummer, son of Henry Hummer, C4149* was born at what is now LeGore Station, Frederick County, July 29, 1815. Being a poor boy, he received but a very small amount of schooling. He followed day laboring and was skilled as a mechanic. It is said that he made the best grain cradles in that part of the country. After his marriage, he lived at LeGore Station, where he owned a small tract, which he cultivated. Here his death occurred about 1878. Politically, he was at first a Democrat but afterwards lent his support to the Republican party. In his religious convictions he was a Lutheran. He was married to Margaret Eyler, daughter of Peter and Susan (Strine) C4,4 Eyler. She died April 10, 1897. They were the parents of the following named children: C414+ William Henry, died young; Jacob Peter, of Lewistown District, married Sarah Haffner; Sarah, who lives in Lewistown, is the widow of Americus G. P. Wiles; Mary, the wife of Thomas Dunn, of Mt. Savage, Md.; Alice E., married to Herman Kreitzer, and lives in Baltimore; Joseph Hamilton, whose name heads this sketch; Agnes, widow of William Williams; and Georgianna Missouri, the wife of Thomas Dawson, of Baltimore.

Joseph Hamilton Hummer, son of Joseph and Margaret (Eyler) Hummer, was sent when he was about seven years old to the Pleasant Hill school, near his home, his first teacher being Frederick Eyler. Other instructors were Mr. Hildebrand and Lu Dutrow. He went to school two months each year until he was thirteen years old. He then hired out to R. G. Stull, of Woodsboro, for eight dollars per month. These were the same wages as were paid to men, but he was large and strong and could hold his own with any of them. He was next employed for three months in ore banks at Catoctin Furnace at $1.20 per day. He then worked by the day for five years wherever he could secure employment. For four years he was hired by Charles Henry Fulton, of Walkersville. At his marriage in 1881, he rented a home on the Harrison Miller farm in Mount Pleasant District, and was engaged in day laboring for four years. He next followed the threshing machine business. For the succeeding two years he worked for John Stimmel, near Woodsboro. By strict economy, Mr. Hummer had accumulated a little money, and he decided to start for himself. He rented the farm of Theodore F. Cramer, near Woodsboro, from whom he leased for seven or eight years. After Mr. Sappington purchased the property, he rented from him and his son for ten years. In 1907, he began to live on his present place. Mr. Hummer is a hustler and a hard worker, to which may be ascribed his success in life. He is a practical agriculturist and has met with much success in his cultivation of the Winebrenner estate.

Mr. Hummer uses his right of franchise to further the interests of the Democratic party. He is affiliated with the Lutheran Church.

On June 15, 1881, Mr. Hummer was married to Julia Elizabeth Miller, of Lewistown District. She is a daughter of John W. and Julia Ann (Shaum) Miller, the former being deceased. Dear Mr. Zahn,

I was delighted to receive your letter with the very fine Eyler material in it. My inquiry was for the Historical Society but as I read the information you gave me I discovered a choice bit for my own family history.

My great-great-grandfather, Henry Smith, (Heinrich Schmidt) who came to this country in 1730 had a daughter, Catharina, who 32692 married Anthony Oeler, his will (made Je 25, 1771) states.

I surely would like to know the history of these migrations of York County people into Virginia and North Carolina. Do you know of any history of these exoduses?

I have made abstracts of the Eyler deeds (releases) you expressed a wish for, the will of Valentine Eyler and also of the Jacob Berlin, Senr. will which I just happened upon without seeking for it.

Here they are:-

HISTORY OF THE ILER (EILER) FAMILY

JACOB ILER, OUR ANCESTOR

The Iler (Eiler) family is of German origin. Our particular line is from the province of Hesse-Cassell, of that much prized and fought over territory known as Alsaace-Loraine.

The correct way of spelling our name is Iler, alhough in general there are many ways of spelling it,such as Eiler, Eyler, Eylar, Eilers, Iler, Ilar, Ohler, Ehler, and in Dutch, Euler.

Our Illinois line through Conrad, our ancestor, is spelled Eiler. This came about when he as an orphaned boy living in a strange neighborhood, and in attendance at the school, the teacher persuaded him to prefix the letter "E" to it, which he did and thus we have it to this day.

He is the only one of his brothers and a sister who uses this spelling, much to the annoyance in our correspondence with our Ohio relatives. It has added much difficulty in my research, in fact all of the work in Maryland and parts of Ohio, aside from our own relatives, has had to be carried on under the name Iler.

The tradition has been carried down in the family, of three brothers who [illegible] original company of this related family. It appears that they came to American about 1800 and landed at Baltimore, Maryland.

Two of these we know—Jacob, our own ancestor, and his brother, Conrad. The latter has descendents still near Westminster, Maryland, and here in Garnett Kansas. I have much correspondence with them.

A fuller account of this Conrad is found elsewhere in this book.

It may be of interest to you to know that I have scores of other records of this German family, spelled in the different ways, but not a one convinces me as belonging to our line.

Strange to say I have never found a single one in New England but all of them in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia. They were here in a very early day and many took part in the Revolutionary War.

There is one numerous line in Canada, and they come as near as any that I feel are related distantly to our line. They first settled in Pennsylvania, later going to Canada in the region across from Detroit, Mich. My correspondence has been carried on with a Mr. Ralph Kingsley Iler of Arner, Essex County, Ontario, Canada. One branch of this Canadan family lives in Monrovia, Calif. They spell their name Iler, and have familiar family names.

Our ancestor, Jacob, seems to have settled in Frederick County, Md., for that is where the first official records are concerning him, and that is of two marriage records, as follows:

Jacob Iler married to Margaret Lukebaugh in Frederick Co., Md., June 23, 1802. Also Jacob Iler in same county married to Catharine Boone Feb. 24, 1808. I am confident that both are the records of our Jacob, and that the first wife died without children. I have made a diligent search for the name Lukebaugh, but have never run across the name in any record, nor is the name known even to this day in Maryland.

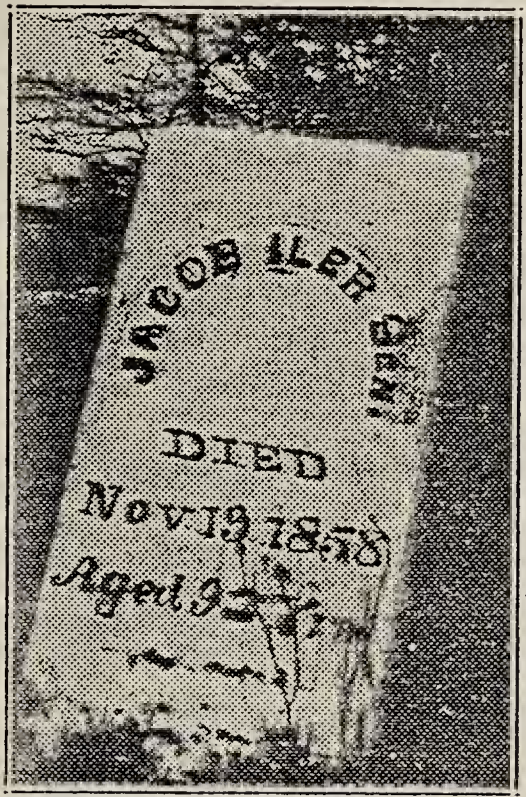
There is no doubt but what the second marriage is ours, for I have investigated thoroughly and have no doubts at all.

I have been in correspondence with the Boon, and Boone, family in Frederick county,Maryland, and, while they have no Bible records so far, yet the traditions are that"A Catharine Boon in our family was married to a German and removed very soon after marriage to the WEST."



The above tombstone of our ancestor Jacob Iler, marks his resting place near his old homestead, near Findlay, Ohio in Blanchard cemetery.

He had moved here about 1832 form Pickaway county, Ohio where he first settled, when he and his bride came from Frederick county, Maryland about 1808 or 9. Jacob Iler was born in Hesse-Cassel, Germany in 1765, coming to America about 1800, landing in Baltimore. He was married in Frederick Co., Md., Feb. 24, 1808 to Catharine Boon. He died Nov. 19, 1858 aged 92 years.

SEVENTH ANNUAL REUNION OF THE EILER FAMILY
(Ann Hartley Grove, [illegible], Ind.)
BRIEF SUMMARY OF FAMILY [illegible]
Aug. 2, 1942

I. HOW IS THE NAME TO BE SPELLED?

A. SWISS FORM: EULER. (Pronounced OYLER or ILER)

a. Ernest Drum, genealogist, Zweibrücken, Palatinate, said in 1938 communication that all our family by any name started in Switzerland and some of them are still there. Others came down the Rhine and later scattered over Germany and to the New World at various dates.

B. GERMAN FORM: EILER. (Pronounced EYLER or ILER)

a. There is an ILLER river in Bavaria. The EILER is the correct form.

C. AMERICAN FORM: EILER, EILAR, EYLER, OYLER, ILER, UHLER.

a. There is an EYLER VALLEY and the old EYLER HOMESTEAD out the Great Road from Emmit to Frederick, Md., says T. Ralston Goldsborough, Rm. 2, Pythian Castle Bldg, Frederick, Maryland.

b. Our own ancestor, according to our best recorded information, signed his name CONRAD EILER, but it appears in legals as EYLER and in some church records as EULER.

II. WHY DID WE COME TO AMERICA?

A. FREEDOM OF WORSHIP.

a. Sept. 15, 1729, Alexander Mack brought 126 Palatinates on the Ship Allen from Rotterdam, via Cowes. They were Brethren, Dunkards, or German Baptists escaping religious persecution. They settled in Pennsylvania near the Maryland state line and became law-abiding, religious, peace-loving people. They owned land and followed the trades they had learned in the Old Country.

b. In this group were Conrad Eiler, his family, including Jacob and Valentine, his neighbors, the Sniders, Arners, Weigles, Culps, etc.

c. In 1738 Conrad Eyler and sons Jacob and Valentine took out warrants for 200 acres, each, of land, at Digg's Choice. This land crossed disputed state lines and was partly in Maryland.

d. In 1740 JACOB EULER sponsored the first Lutheran Baptism. The name was given the original Swiss spelling by Rev. Casper Stover, who knew the family backgroung intimately.

e. In 1771 VALENTINE EILER and wife SUSANNAH EILER bought a tract of land known as Muddy Spring of Daniel Cooper, near Iler's Character, in Maryland, Frederick County.

f. In 1772 VALENTINE EILER and wife SUSANNAH EILER sold this land, on the request of a Conrad Oiller.

g. Valentine and wife were members of the Brethern Church in colonial days, says the History of the Brethren Church. Susannah Eiler's headstone says she died in 1830 and had been a member of the German Batist Church for 75 years.

III. MIGRATION TO CANADA IN THE WINTER OF 1779:

A. FREEDOM OF WORSHIP AGAIN THE MOTIVE.

a. The Detroit Library gives among the first settlers on Gros Isle a JACOB EILER. He was married and migrated with family and neighbors.

b. "OUR ANCESTORS" by Homer Eiler, 1512 Grove Ave., Topeka, Kansas, says little is known if Jacob's origin, but 'he was very religious, a Lutheran, and a Potter by trade."

c. We seem on sure ground when we assume that this JACOB EILER was the JACOB EYLER of the 1729 migration and the 1738 land grant, and oldest son of CONRAD EILER.

d. We know that our VALENTINE EILER, whose wife was Susannah Culp, went to Gros Isle in 1779 because as a member of the Brethren Church in colonial days he had remained true to his peace principles and was persecuted by neighbors who thought he should take up arms.

e. In the group who went to Canada were the Eilers, Sniders, Arners, Weigles, and others. Here SAMUEL EILER was born in 1791.

IV. VALENTINE RETURNS TO THE STATES IN 1796;

A. DAYTON in 1796:

a. The History of Mad River Township, Dayton, Ohio, says Daniel Cooper paid taxes for his miller, Valentine Cyler.

b. "Valentine Cyler was a NATIVE of Maryland (i.e., native means place of birth) and during the Revolution he was a Tory and fled to Canada. In 1796 he came to Dayton, settled on Section 21, known as the Mary Woodman Farm, and raised a family." "He was miller for Daniel Cooper and helped build the first Courthouse in Dayton."

C43 Valentine Eiler was born Feb. 14, 1745 and died Dec. 13,1813 His name is spelled VALENTINE EILER in his will, but it is spelled FELTY CYLER in Ohio Pioneers.

c. "Two Centuries of the Brethren Church " says:

"Most of the colonial Brethren were land-loving and land-owning people. They were people who attended to their own business and did not participate in movements such as the Revolution. During the Revolution their faith as to non-resistance was put to a severe test. The utterly groundless charge was made by neighbors that their reluctance to take up arms was loyalty to England. Some were persecuted beyond endurance of highly strung nature and they moved deeper into the frontier."

d. The fact that our own VALENTINE EILER, father of Sammy Eiler, and direct forbear of most of the members of this reunion, came back in 1796 to the United States, remaining in Colchester Twp., Ontario, Canada, near Detroit only 16 years shows that his motive for leaving his native state, Maryland, or Diggs Choice, on the state line, was NOT loyalty to England.

C43

C432 e. Our SAMUEL EILER who was born on Gros Isle in March, 1791, married Susannah Snider in 1814 and moved in 1825 to Hagerstown, Indiana. He was deacon in the Brethren Church for 75 years. He died in 1875 and is buried at the Hagerstown Nettle Creek Church of the Brethren, on his old homestead. His mother, Susannah Culp Eilerm is also buried there. His father, Valentine Eiler, is buried at Dayton, Ohio.

f. There is no doubt about our direct connection with the Canadian Iler Family. A letter dated 1837 from David Iler to his 'Uncle Samuel and Aunt Susannah' says his father would love to see his old mother before she died. In the spring of 1838 another letter states that his father (Jacob Eiler, son of ~~[illegible]~~ Valentine and brother of Samuel) was grieved to hear of the death of his old mother, Susannah Culp Eiler, who, as we have said, died that winter.

V. "OUR ANCESTORS" by Homer Eiler, 1518 Grove Ave, Topeka, Kans.

A. His line came over about 1800. Three brothers, Conrad, Jacob, NY and another brother were in this group. eC014

B. There have been many migrations of the old, original stock from Switzerland and the Rhineland, but it is now clear about our common origin.

C. All records verify the assumption that in the main the EILER FAMILY is good stock, law-abiding, given to church affairs, domestic in their tastes, interested in public affairs but not ambitious to assume public office or great power. Many are professional and business men and women; others farmers.

V. CHURCH RECORD OF THE FAMILY:

a. The first Eiler by name to come to America is pretty well known; Conrad Eiler, wife Margaret, and his family.

b. They came as members of the Dunkard (Brethren) Church, with Alexander Mack, in 1729, on the Ship Allen, from Rotterdam, via Cowes, ship master Jas. Craigie. They arrived Sept. 15,1729. They were Palatinates escaping religious coercion.

c. In York (earlier Lancaster County), Brethren or Baptist congregations were located at Little Conewago in 1738; at Big Conewago in 1741; at Codorus in 1758. There were 800 Brethren in America at the opening of the Revolutionary War. "They were a group that attended to their own business, did not take part in movements such as the Revolution, and for this were often misunderstood and persecuted by their neighbors." Thus they were not Tories but just non-combatants. As an Uncle, Benj. William, used to say: "They owned a whole county along some river in the east and were satisfied with existing conditions." But we know that many of the family in America at that time did take active part in the War on the side of the colonists.

d. Two Centuries of the Church of the Brethren says:

"Most of the colonial Brethren were land-loving, land-owning people. During the Revolution their faith as to non-resistance was put to a severe test. The utterly groundless charge was made that their reluctance to go to war was due to loyalty to England. This was not true at all. Some were persecuted beyond endurance of highly strung nature and moved deeper into the Frontier."

e. The early Brethren and Lutherans were closely associated. Casper Stoeffer and Peter Muhlenburg baptised many into the Lutheran Church. Jacob Eiler, (Euler in church records), sponsored such a baptism in 1742. IF HE HAD A SON VALENTINE BORN Feb. 14 (8), 1745, who later married Susannah Culp, born 1747, we have our own family line set up to 1729. WE NEED TO GET THE NAMES OF THE CHILDREN OF JACOB EYLER, son of CONRAD EYLER, of the land grant of 1738. Mr. Goldsborough, or Lottie Bausman of Lancaster,Penn., of "The Historical Society of York Co.,225 E.Market,St., York,Pa., could get this data.

e. Our own Susannah Culp Eiler is buried at the Hagerstown,Ind., Church of the Brethren, in 1838, aged 91 years;"for 75 years a member of the German Baptist Church," says her tombstone.

VI: EUROPEAN BACKGROUND OF THE FAMILY:

-Ernest Drumm, geneologist, in 1938, Zweibrucken,Palatinate.

a. SWISS ORIGIN: name spelled EULER. Pronounced OI, EI, I.
    1. Basel, Switzerland records may reveal primitive data.

b. RHINE RIVER MIGRATION about 1600:
    1. Some member of the family came down the Rhine River and stayed sometimes at the 'House of the Princes'. From there they migrated over the German Empire and many came to America
    2. German spelling of the name is EILER: but there is a river in Germany called the ILLER RIVER.

c. One history of the Brethren Church states that Valentine Eiler was born in Germany and came to this country from there. This would wreck, perhaps, our connection with Conrad Eiler of 1729, But similarity of names, locations, church affiliation, and family records point almost irrevocably to this connection.

C43 Valentine's father, Jacob c4 of the 1738 land grant, was born in Germany. (See Penn. Archives,3rd series,Vol. xxiv, p. 399)

* BUT THIS REMAINS OUR FIRST OBJECTIVE; Where was Valentine born and who was his father? (B. Feb. 14 (8), 1745 (Bible records)

WILLIAM WARREN DOUB, secretary of the People's Fire Insurance Company of Frederick County, and a well known citizen, was born at Myersville, in Jackson District, Frederick County, April 18, 1865. He is a son of Jonas A. and Ann F. (Waters) Doub.

The Doub family is of French lineage and was among the pioneer families of Middletown Valley, in Frederick County.

Enos Doub, the grandfather of William Warren Doub, was a son of Abraham Doub. He was a native of Middletown Valley, and followed agricultural pursuits all his life. He lived to be over eighty-seven years of age. In religion, he was one of the leading members of the United Brethren Church in his district. Mr. Doub was married to Mary Sheffer. They were the parents of a large family, among whom was Jonas A.

Jonas A. Doub, son of Enos and Mary (Sheffer) Doub, was born in Jackson District, Frederick County, October 25, 1840, and died in the borough of Middletown, October 2, 1907. Mr. Doub was married to Ann F. Waters in 1863. She is a daughter of James and Ann E. (Schlosser) Waters. There were four children by this marriage: William Warren; Annie E., married H. E. Zimmerman and died October 7, 1894; Harvey L., died in childhood; and James E., of Middletown, manager of the G. L. Baking Company, Frederick, Md.

William Warren Doub, son of Jonas A. and Ann F. (Waters) Doub, grew to maturity on a farm in Middletown district, Frederick County. While a boy he was engaged in farm work and attended the public schools. He later went to the Middletown Academy. Upon the completion of his education, he was for two years a clerk for A. W. Smith, of Middletown, who conducted a general merchandise store. At the age of twenty-three years, Mr. Doub entered the employ of T. C. Rudy & Son in a similar capacity, they also operating a general store in Middletown. Here he remained for one year until 1889, when he became discount clerk for the Valley Savings Bank of Middletown, a well known financial institution of the county. This position—Bookkeeper and Teller at different periods—Mr. Doub filled until January 1, 1907, at which time he became deputy county treasurer under George W. Crown, holding this office until December 10, 1907. On that date, Mr. Doub was chosen secretary of the People's Fire Insurance Company of Frederick County. He has since been connected with this widely known enterprise and has discharged his duties with much ability. He is well known and is recognized as one of Frederick County's leading and substantial citizens.

Mr. Doub is a stanch adherent of the Republican principles in politics. Fraternally, he is connected with Columbia Lodge, No. 58, A. F. and A. M., of Frederick City, and the Junior Order United American Mechanics, of Middletown. Religiously, he holds membership in the Lutheran Church, in which he takes an active part. For the past fourteen years he has been superintendent of the Sunday School, and is treasurer of the church council.

On October 2, 1894, Mr. Doub was married to Harriet E. Remsburg, daughter of George W. and Joanna (Derr) Remsburg, a member of an old Middletown Valley family. There are three sons by this marriage: Virgil W., John W., and Donald J. (See the Doub, Remsburg and Ramsburg sketches in this volume for further history of these families).

D. W. DEITRICK, one of the foremost citizens of Frederick City and well known in milling circles, is a native of Reading, Pa., where he was born August 22, 1867.

Mr. Deitrick's ancestors were among the early settlers of Berks County, Pa. They were of sturdy German and Swiss stock, and their descendants have been and are at the present time among the leading business and agricultural people in various parts of the United States. Mr. Deitrick was educated in the Berks county schools. He first engaged in the milling business in 1892, and now operates flour mills at Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Reading, Pa., and Frederick, Md. His establishment at the last named place is known as the Mountain City Mills. This mill is a four-story brick building, equipped with all the latest and modern improved machinery for the manufacture of all grades of the finest flour. This is the foremost industry in Frederick County of its kind. The mill is located at the Baltimore and Ohio depot and has a capacity of 1000 barrels daily, the output being chiefly disposed of to the domestic trade. The plant is operated by steam.

Mr. Deitrick is strictly a self-made man, and has risen to his present position by his own efforts entirely. In politics, he is Democratic, and in religion is a member of the Reformed Church. Mr. Deitrick is a member of the New York Produce Exchange, the Commercial Exchange of Philadelphia, the Chamber of Commerce of Baltimore, the State Millers' Association of Pennsylvania and Maryland, and the Holstein Fresian Association. He is president of the Farmers' Exchange of Frederick.

ROBERT LEE DAVIS is a well-known young farmer, residing upon the old Homestead Stock and Dairy Farm, on the Washington and Frederick road, four miles from New Market. He was born on this farm, November 8, 1867, and is a son of Isaac T. and Sarah F. (Spalding) Davis.

The fine Old Homestead Farm lies along the line between the New Market and Urbana districts. It was formerly a more extensive tract than it is now. From "time out of mind," a couplet has been traditionally connected with it—very curiously, because it is not verified by facts, since every owner of that farm has been successful, and accumulated a competency; the lines are:

"Vulcan's Valley and Cowtail Hill,
For want of the money, the work stands still."

This farm has been in the same family for more than a century. It belonged to Robert Lee Davis's great-great-grandfather, William Morsell, was inherited by his great-grandfather, also a William Morsell, from whom it passed to a daughter, Rachel Morsell, who married Eli Davis, the present owner's grandfather, who bequeathed it to his son, Isaac T. Davis, as a life possession, to be inherited by his children. The old barn, which was torn down in the spring of 1907, was erected so many years ago that the oldest resident of the neighborhood has no recollection of it. On the same site, the present owner has built a fine new barn, 45x70 feet in dimensions. The residence, or a part of it, was built at the same time as the barn. The north end is built of brick, while the south end is frame, or weatherboarded logs—the north end having been burned down in the year ———, and rebuilt with bricks.

George Davis, great-grandfather of Robert Lee Davis, married Miss Elizabeth Hyatt. They spent the later years of their life with their son, Eli Davis. George Davis was by occupation a merchant. He died at the age of seventy-seven years, his wife at seventy-two; both were interred in the old Friends' graveyard, near Monrovia. Their children were: 1, Julia Ann (Mrs. Ezra Greentree); 2, Mary; 3, William, who went to Ohio, and died there; 4, Eli; 5, Isaac, all his life engaged in farming, near Sugar Loaf Mountain; he married Catherine Miles; 6, George, who married Margaret Bosley, lived and died in Baltimore; 7, John, who removed to Zanesville, O., in the service of the B. & O. R. R.; returned in later years, and died in New Market District; never married; 8, Rufus, also single, died in Urbana District; 9, Mary Ann; 10, Charlotte, (Mrs. Thomas Fowler), died in New Market District; 11, Richard, all his life engaged in farming, married Annie Williams; died in Frederick City.

Eli Davis and his wife, Rachel (Morsell) Davis, spent all their married life at the Old Homestead Farm. Both were born in the year 1809; Mrs. Davis died in 1886, and her husband followed her in 1887; both were buried by the Friends' meeting-house near Monrovia. They had united with the Methodist Protestant Church, but Mrs. Davis was of a Quaker family. Politically, Eli Davis was first a Whig and later, a Democrat. ~~GEORGE WILLIAM HORMAN, owner of one of the best farms in Frederick County, situated on the Buckeystown road, one mile from the village of Urbana, is an enterprising and progressive farmer. He was born on his father's farm near Urbana, April 13, 1869, and is a son of William Henry and Mary Elizabeth (Haller) Horman.~~

~~Augustus F. C. Horman, grandfather of George W. Horman, was a native of Hanover, Germany. He was a tailor by trade, and came to the United States in 1837. He had been married in his native land to Dorretta Barriger, also a native of Hanover. His wife and daughter followed him to this country three years later, in 1840. He had learned his trade in Germany, and upon his arrival here located in Frederick, where he conducted a tailoring business. He was a master in his line and among his customers were the best people of the community. He later removed to Hyattstown, Montgomery County, Md., where he engaged in business. His health failed, however, and he bought the tract now owned by his son William, situated in Urbana district, Frederick County, to which he removed in 1856. He engaged in farming until 1869, when he retired and his son took charge of the place. He was a life long Republican. He was a thorough Christian, and was active in church work, serving as an elder in his congregation. He died September 19, 1880, at the age of seventy-one years, and is buried at Hyattstown. Mr. Horman was married three times. His first wife, Dorretta Barriger, died about 1850, aged thirty years. She bore him these children: Lizetta, married Albert C. Strauss, of Washington, D. C.; Charles E., who died aged sixty years in Howard County, Md., married a Miss Kessler; William Henry; Augustus R., of Prince George's County, Md., married Violetta Haller. Mr. Horman was married secondly to a Miss Neikirk, of Washington County, Md. His third wife was Mrs. Ann Sebley, widow of Thomas Sebley, whose maiden name was Fowler. There were no children by the two last marriages.~~

~~William Henry Horman, son of Augustus F. C. and Dorretta (Barriger) Horman, who is one of the well known and prominent citizens of Frederick County, has served as a member of the board of county commissioners and is a successful agriculturist. He possesses 200 acres of land near the village of Urbana, made up of two tracts. Here he has lived since April, 1856. He was born at Hyattstown, Montgomery County, Md., October 6, 1847. He became a pupil in the public school at Hyattstown, at six years of age, under Mr. Thompson. He later went to the Baker's Valley school under William R. Winchel and George W. Blessing. His first work was helping his father on the farm. Before his marriage he went to Washington, D. C., and for nine months was engaged in market gardening. He then returned to his home and succeeded his father on the farm. Since then he has made many improvements, putting up fences and planting orchards. In 1892 he built a barn, 45x70 feet, and two years later erected a home, a frame two-story house, with eleven rooms.~~

~~Politically, Mr. Horman has been an ardent Republican ever since attaining his majority. For many years he served as a member of the Central Committee. In 1897 he was elected to the office of commissioner of Frederick county, having the largest majority on the ticket. He was elected president of the board, December 4, 1897, and served four years in that capacity, being re-elected president in 1899, after a hard factional fight. As commissioner, he discharged his duties to the satisfaction of all concerned. Religiously, Mr. Horman has been a member of the Christian Church at Hyattstown since 1871, and has acted as an elder for the past fifteen years.~~

~~Mr. Horman was married February 9, 1869, to Mary Elizabeth Haller, daughter of Jacob L. and Sarah M. (Kantner) Haller, of Frederick, the last named being a daughter of George Kantner. There were eight children born to this union: George W.; Lewis Edward; Mary E., married first William C. Strauss, by whom she had one son, William, and secondly, Arthur Norfolk; Henrietta, the wife of Milton Tucker, of Frederick district, by whom she has one daughter, Ruth; Lena, married Thomas L. Smith, a farmer of Urbana District, by whom she had three children, Bertie, deceased, Evelyn and Verona; Ella May, the wife of Aaron L. Staley, of Urbana District, and has three children, Julia, William and Mary; Dora V., at home; and Katie Adella, also at home.~~

~~George William Horman, son of William H. and Mary E. (Haller) Horman, attended school in Baker's Valley. He grew to maturity in the manner customary with farmers' sons, becoming acquainted with all the details~~

~~of an agriculturist's life. When he was twenty-seven years old, he left home, and with his brother, Lewis, and his brother-in-law, Aaron Staley, bought the home which he now owns. It then consisted of 312 acres. Later Mr. Horman bought his partners' interests and in the settlement 147 acres were sold. The remaining 165 acres is good land, and under a high state of cultivation. This farm was once owned by the McDonalds. The previous owner before Mr. Horman was William Lawson, from whom it was purchased in the spring of 1897. The brick used in the construction of the house was burnt on the place and the barn was erected by Mr. Lawson about thirty years ago. Mr. Horman has increased the desirability of the place by improving it. He has erected a fine two-story frame house with thirteen rooms, one of the finest homes of this section, and improved all his outbuildings, making this one of the best improved farms of the county. He is strictly a self-made man.~~

THE LATE EDWARD T. GETZENDANNER, a well-known farmer who resided near Poolesville, Md., eldest son of Daniel and Mary (Derr) Getzendanner, was born in Frederick County, Md., January 22, 1825.

FIRST SETTLEMENTS OF GERMANS IN MARYLAND—THE GETZENDANNER FAMILY.

Christian Getzendanner, or, as sometimes found in the old records, Kitchadanner, was born in Switzerland, but took up his residence in Schiefferstadt, Germany, where, in 1723, he met and married Ann Barbara Brunner. In 1729 he came with the Brunner family to America, landing in Philadelphia, Pa., September 15, (See Rupp's 30,000 names, page 16, in the Library in Harrisburg, Pa.,) and settled about two miles west of the spot where the city of Frederick was afterwards laid out. He purchased from the Indians, a tract of 3000 acres extending from the foot of the mountains, where Fairview now stands, easterly towards the Monocacy River. Mr. Getzendanner relied upon the title obtained from the Indians, but, ascertaining that a Mr. O'Neal had obtained a patent for about 1000 acres on the eastern part of his land, his eyes were opened to the necessity of obtaining a better title to his possessions. He accordingly applied for a patent and, on April 17, 1754, succeeded in securing a patent for 930 acres, on a part of which his original settlement had been made. The first house, which was built of logs, stood until about thirty years ago. The descendants of Mr. Getzendanner intermarried with the families of the Schleys, Kemps and Buckeys. Christian Getzendanner died in 1766, bequeathing the land to his son, Adam.

Adam Getzendanner died in 1783, and by his will divided his land among his three sons: John, Christian, and Jacob.

John Getzendanner, the great-grandfather of Mrs. E. D. Shriner, who was the eldest, receiving the part on which his father resided. At his death, in 1841, he divided his land called "Adam's Content," among his three sons: Johnathan, Daniel and Abraham.

Johnathan Getzendanner was married to Elizabeth, daughter of John Derr. Dr. John W. Getzendanner, of Middletown, Md., is the grandson, and Dr. Harvey Getzendanner, of Frederick, Md., the great-grandson of Johnathan and Elizabeth (Derr) Getzendanner.

Abraham Getzendanner was married to Mary, daughter of Peter Buckey. These brothers had large families, but their descendants, with few exceptions, left Frederick County and settled in other parts of Maryland, Virginia, and others of the Southern and Western States.

Daniel Getzendanner was married to Mary, daughter of John Derr and a sister of Elizabeth Derr (Mrs. Johnathan Getzendanner). Their eldest son, Edward T. Getzendanner, great-great-grandson of the original settler, Christian Getzendanner, spent his whole life in farming. In politics, he was a life-long Democrat. In religion, he was a member of the Reformed Church. Edward T. Getzendanner was married to Catharine Schaeffer. Their children are: 1, Annie Mary, died July 10, 1864; 2, Mrs. Nelson Diehl, of Frederick; 3, Winton; 4, Daniel J., died May 19, 1899; 5, William Reese, resides in Montgomery County, Md.; 6, Addie, the wife of Dr. Barrick, of Newark, Ohio; 7, Nannie May (Mrs. Edward D. Shriner), of Frederick County, Md. Mr. Getzendanner died at his farm near Poolesville, Md., February 14, 1897.

Dear Richard,

Enclosed you'll find a 720K, 3.5", MSDOS-formatted diskette with all my stuff on it. File SHORE.GED is my main database; file LITTELL.GED is a file of descendants of one John LITTELL of CT and NJ that I haven't yet integrated into my main database. I ZIPed both files and included PKUNZIP in case you don't have it. You had mentioned the possibility that our lines might cross in families other than the OYLERs, so I didn't bother to limit SHORE.GED to descendants of the OYLERs only. If I've sent you too much stuff, let me know and I'll prepare another file with just the OYLER line. I'll happily take your data in return.

As you know from what I sent you, my OYLER connection is through Benjamin WEDDLE, and I have done almost none of the WEDDLE research myself. The descendants of Benjamin in SHORE.GED are taken from Climb Your Family Tree by Kate Ratliff, Route 2 Box 586, Floyd VA 24091. Please don't repeat this, but from the letters I have exchanged with Kate I would call her a well-meaning family historian but not a real researcher. Calvin Weddle (1900 E. Ocean View Ave, Unit E, Norfolk VA 23503-2555), on the other hand, is a careful researcher. I've gone through my correspondence with Calvin and to my embarassment can't find a reference to the GEMELCKS name. I'm sure I got the info from Cal, though, and even if I didn't he will have the source. Oh well..

Looking forward to hearing from you,

Bob Shore

COMPUTER GRAPHICS AND GENEALOGY

by Richard Strait

"A picture is worth a thousand words" is a quote that has been heard many times and has new meaning when applied to using a personal computer with genealogy. The personal computer is already being used to keep track of ancestors, record extracts and abstracts of all kinds of records, i.e., probate records, wills, land records, census records, marriage, birth and death records, etc. Societies are using them to publish newsletters, maintain membership records, etc. Many records are being transcribed to computer media and will supplement microfilm and microfiche.

Another form of technology that has piqued the interest of the genealogist is the capability to use graphics in conjunction with text. In the beginning the output from such technology was quite crude, but as the technology developed, it has became an integral part of electronic publication. With this technology and the software developed to support it, we have the means to reach new heights in documenting our heritage.

Imagine being able to store a portrait of great great grandmother in your genealogy, a snapshot of the first auto your father owned, as well as graphic images of early land deeds, wills, funeral cards, etc., in files and merge them with the rest of the genealogy records you have stored on your PC?

To do this you will need a scanner, a product that has come of age. Scanners come in two different configurations; page scanners and hand scanners. Page scanners are used by businesses across the country because they are capable of capturing high-resolution, distortion free images from the printed page. The hand scanner is better suited for the genealogist as they are easier to use for scanning small images, portions of larger images and pages from bound books and magazines.

Another factor is price. Hand scanner prices range from under $300 for a black and white model up to $900 for a color scanner, whereas page scanners begin at $700 and up. These are list prices, street prices can be considerably less.

The hand scanner can only be used for scans within the width of the scan window (4 or 5 inches), and because they are hand held, scanned images can suffer from skewing and poor registration. They require a steady hand and take some practice to obtain acceptable images.

What about scanning text? There are several factors that must be considered, if you expect to be able to use the scanner to scan text for your word processor or desk top publisher. For this purpose you will need OCR (optical character recognition) software. There is plenty of OCR software available and some are included with the purchase of a hand scanner. However, one must be aware that the quality of the text being scanned is important. Naturally, you cannot expect to convert hand written text with a scanner, or a font that is not recognizable by the OCR software. This is especially applicable to the genealogist because of our interest in older documents. This limitation does not detract from the many possibilities that do exist to capture graphic images.

Black and white scanners with true gray-scale capability are a better choice for the genealogist. Color scanners can often do gray-scale scanning, either directly or by converting color images, however these images often have fewer shades of gray and lower resolutions than dedicated gray-scale scanners. The black and white scanner with true gray-scale capability will convert color to shades of gray. A simple black and white scanner will only recognize black or white, whereas one with gray-scale capability will recognize different shades of gray (light intensity) and dither the image accordingly. The quality of your image is also directly related to the resolution of your monitor and printer.

Most scanners require the installation of an interface board which rules out use with most laptops. Some of the newer laptop and notebook models provide expansion capability for 8-bit interface boards.

DOS-based graphics software is usually bundled with scanners. Other software provides conversion from black-and-white to gray images, color to gray-scale, or the reverse. Almost all programs import and export .PCX and TIFF files, but not many support other formats such as .GIF, .EPS, and .BMP. For converting between different graphic formats, between black-and-white and color, etc., you will need graphics conversion software such as HiJaak, a commercial package from Inset Systems, or Graphic Workshop, a shareware package from Alchemy Mindworks Inc. Iconvert is another useful program, a commercial package from Infinity Engineering Services. The latter is also available as shareware under the name Icondemo.

At present I don't have the equipment to do my own scanning, and I only have a CGA monochrome monitor with a nine pin dot matrix printer. So in order to experiment I had four photographs scanned commercially which was rather expensive. Four photographs scanned at both 72 dpi and 150 dpi came to $40.00 which was their fee for an hour. This was done with a color scanner on a Macintosh and the results transferred to DOS disks. Since I had to work in black and white I converted the files, which were in TIFF format to black-and-white gray scale images. For this I used Graphics Workshop and resized them for use with PFS First Publisher. Since this can cause distortion I edited them with PFS First Publisher.

The quality of your images will depend upon the resolution capability of your monitor and printer. One thing to remember if you use a scanner is not to scan at a resolution greater than the capability of your printer. Your image will only be as good as your printer can do.

Another use for graphics is to create custom maps to illustrate where your ancestors lived. There is sophisticated mapping software available, which is expensive and requires large memory and disk storage. But there are less expensive methods that can be used. Clipart is available with maps of countries all over the world, including the United States. I used the the inexpensive clip art and created a map of Germany to show where my Oyler ancestor lived.

This map shows the location of Maar Hesse where Conrad Oyler was born ca. 1675. He married Margaret, surname unknown in Germany. They had seven children all born in Germany. Conrad and his family arrived in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania USA 11 Sep 1729 and settled in York Co., PA where he received a land grant from the commonwealth of Pennsylvania 3 Oct 1738.

CLIP ART

I have been developing a library of clip art from commercial, shareware and public domain sources for some time and have accumulated a sizable collection. However, only a small portion of the clip art can be considered genealogy specific. It was for this reason that I proposed on the National Genealogy Conference a joint project to collect genealogy specific clip art from various sources. Since a number of computerized genealogists have scanners and access to old books, photographs, etc., a unique collection could be accumulated. I have offered to coordinate this effort and maintain the library. Since there are a number of different formats for graphic files, I would propose the following guidelines for this library.

CLIP ART GUIDELINES

✓ Disk Format: 360K 5.25”

✓ Graphic Format: .PCX Note: If you cannot contribute in .PCX format, I am able to convert between formats and dither color to black & white gray scale.

✓ Black and White only, no color; gray-scale accepted.

✓ A minimal fee per disk for non-contributors to cover costs of disks, mailers & postage.

✓ Contributors would receive clip art files equal to the number contributed and access to the remainder in the library at half the minimal fee referred to in item 4.

✓ Clip art should be in the public domain. No copyright material.

✓ Clip art should be scanned and provided at 75, 150 and 300 dots per inch. This will support the majority of available dot matrix and laser printers.

A Local Area “Friends Of. . .” Photo Album

By Ralph M. Wefel, Chairman
WEFEL Family Association
555-91 Freeman Road, Central Point, OR 97502

A “specific locality” photo exchange proposal album that I put into use recently may have application in other areas.

I had inherited over one hundred circa 1870-1910 studio portraits that had been given to my aunt and my mother. These fine photographs were of themselves, high school, and early adult friends, who had lived in the Zanesville, Muskingum County, Ohio area. Some were annotated and others were not. At the time, the unannotated photos appeared to be of no use to me. However, I wanted to place them in the hands of the Zanesville descendants of those persons shown in the photos. But, how?

To accomplish this, I made two XEROX copies of each photo; trimmed some to manageable size; and taped them in groups onto 8 1/2 ” by 11” white sheets. Known names and “Name Unknown” were taped under each photo. Consecutively numbered self-adhesive colored round “dot” labels were placed near each name for photo identification. An alphabetical index was made of the known surname/given names and the unknowns, with the photo number assigned. The original studio portraits were securely stored.

Two three-ring binder photo books were assembled and entitled, “Zanesville, Ohio, Friends of ANNA MARIA (Stern) PLETCHER and PEARL EVA SOPHIA (Stern) WEFEL, circa 1870-1919.” One book was for my record and the other was sent to the Librarian of the Muskingum County Genealogical Society in Zanesville, Ohio.

An Instruction Page was included, addressed to the Members of the Society. In it, I stated that I would forward the original studio portrait to:

1) anyone who could establish a Zanesville, Ohio, family relationship with the person in a specific numbered photo. I requested an Ancestor Chart to accomplish this. I planned that the chart and the accompanying letter would be filed with my notebook copy of the photo requested/sent, for my own Zanesville records.

2) anyone who could tell me, if they can, what was the Zanesville, Ohio, social relationship (school, church, club) of my mother and her older sister to those persons who had given them their personal photos.

3) anyone who would be willing to share with me XEROX copies of similar circa 1870-1910 photographs that might include my own Zanesville, Ohio, STERN, WEFEL, REHL, etc., family members. And, perhaps the “story” behind the photos. I included STERN and WEFEL ancestor charts for information.

A short publicity paragraph was included that discussed the “Friends Of. . . .” photo album and the photo exchange proposal, for inclusion in the next Society newsletter.

I am hoping that the effort put into these “Zanesville Friends” albums will enable me to place valuable studio portraits back into family hands and to productively increase my Muskingum County, Ohio, contacts as to genealogical research on my own STERN/WEFEL and Collateral Family ancestors.

It is suggested that similar “Friends Of. . . .” photo notebooks designed for specific small cities, having one active genealogical society, could enable the return of more “NAME UNKNOWN” photographs to the descendants of those in the photos. It is worth the effort!

The first Lawyer is said to have been John Davidson; the second, John Curtis; later, David Reed. The present attorneys are Wm. W. Woods and Daniel W. Mason; the latter being at present Prosecuting Attorney.

Wm. Baker was an early Justice of the Peace, supposed to have been the first in the township, and Thomas Burns the next. The present justices are Robert Gardner, Sylvester Baldwin.

Members of the Legislature elected from this township, Jonathan Platts, Joseph Hawkins, Wesley Williamson, Wm. C. Bowen.

The Town of Hagerstown was laid out by Jacob Ulrich and Jonas Harris, March 8, 1832, and the survey recorded Nov. 15, 1832. An addition was made Oct. 15, 1838, by J. Ulrich, Henry Herman, and George Gillespie & Co.

// RELIGIOUS SOCIETIES.—The German Baptist Church (known also as Dunkers and Tunkers,) was organized about the year 1824; its members residing in the townships of Jefferson and Jackson, and in adjacent townships in Henry Co. Hardman, John Ulrich, Jacob Caylor, Henry Cr[illegible] and Samuel Cripe. Meetings were first held at private houses, in groves, barns, &c., until their meeting-house was built, 1½ miles south-west of Hagerstown, about the year 1843. Bowman, the first ordained elder; succeeded by John Bowman, David Hardman, Zachariah Albaugh, Daniel Bowman, Jacob Bowman, John Holler, David Bowman, Lewis Kinsey, Wm. Lindley, Daniel Smith. man, and Smith, became elders. Early deacons were Jacob Caylor, Benj. Hardman, John Hardman, John Ulrich. This church has, for the accommodation of its members, three other meeting-houses: one, 6 miles north-west of Hagerstown, in Henry Co.; one, 5 miles south-west, also in Henry Co.; and another, 4 miles north-west, in Jefferson township. The members attending worship in these different houses constitute but one church. Preachers are elected by the members of the church, male and female. Elders are chosen from the preachers, who, after sufficient trial, have given evidence of faithfulness and ability. The office of elder is the highest in the church. Deacons are chosen in the same manner as elders.

A statement of the religious views and customs of this peculiar people may be interesting to those residing in the remote parts of the county. The fundamental principles of their faith are the same as those recognized by most of the leading denominations in this country as evangelical. Their order of worship, generally, is also similar to that practiced by others. Their communion seasons are less frequent; occurring about once a year in each branch of the church, and being observed only in the evening. The bread and wine they do not regard as the Lord's Supper. The supper is an ordinary meal. Before eating they wash each other's feet, in imitation of the example of the Savior, which they consider as binding on his professed followers. During the ceremony they sit with their faces from the table. When the number is large, the service is performed by several of the members; and the washing is preceded by a salutation and a kiss. These are followed by others with towels, whose service is accompanied with the like salutation and kiss. Those of each sex are served by persons of their own number. After the giving of thanks, all standing, they seat themselves at the table. After the supper is ended, and the table cleared, the bread and wine are served, the partaking of each being preceded by the giving of thanks. This, as has been observed, is the communion.

The Dunkers, or Tunkers, [from a word signifying dip,] believe that adults alone are proper subjects of baptism, on the profession of faith and repentance, and that no other is Christian baptism. This rite is performed by taking the applicant into the water, who, having kneeled, is dipped three times, face foremost, once in the name of the Father, once in the name of the Son, and once in the name of the Holy Ghost. They believe this to be in accordance with the Savior's teaching.

They enjoin plainness in dress, and the avoidance of what is not essential to bodily comfort. While they admit that religion does not consist in dress, they consider the style of dress as an index of the state of the heart. Besides, uniformity in dress tends to unite the rich and the poor more closely in the bonds of Christian fellowship. They are particular in having the men sit with their heads uncovered, and the women to keep theirs covered, during devotional exercises. One of their rules is never to allow any of their members to become chargeable to the public for their support. They have the privilege of voting for public officers, but they accept no civil office, for several reasons, one of which is that they hold it wrong to take or administer an oath. They are also averse to bearing arms, and to the use of force even in self-defense.

A Methodist Episcopal Church, [Olive Branch,] 2½ miles north-east of Hagerstown, was organized—date uncertain—perhaps about the year 1828. Among the early members were Joseph Bowen, Samuel Pollard, Isaac Pierce, Charles Conaway, and their wives, Joseph Manifold, James Hartup, Joel Bowen, Jonathan Shaw. They built a frame meeting-house perhaps about the year 1837 or 1838, which was destroyed by fire about the year 1839; and the present brick house was built immediately after. Allen Wiley is believed to have been the first preacher. After him were George Gatch, Richard Robinson, Stephen Beggs, John C. Smith, Joseph Tarkington, David Stiver, Ansel Beach, Landy Havens, Miltideus Miller, Robert Burns.

A Christian Church was organized about the year 1830, in the south-east part of the township. Among its earliest members were the brothers Jacob, John, and Samuel Miller, Mrs. Worl, Mary, wife of Daniel Bradbury, Mahala Wilcox, Margaret Felton. Their first preachers are said to have been James and Robert Burns, succeeded by Elijah Martindale, Samuel Miller, John Robertson, Elisha Ashley; present pastor, James P. Dikes. JEFFERSON

Is bounded on the north by Dalton and Perry, south by Jackson and Harrison, east by Perry and Clay, and west by Henry county. This township contains (not including Hagerstown), four churches, viz., Methodist Episcopal, United Brethren, Christian (or New Light), and Dunkard. It also has many good schools, four flour mills and five saw mills.

Hagerstown is situated near the centre of Jefferson township, sixteen miles northwest of Richmond, and seven miles north of Cambridge City. The town is built between two mill streams, namely: West River—the west fork of the Whitewater—and Nettle Creek, which streams furnish an abundance of unfailing water power for all kinds of manufacturing purposes. A considerable amount of the water privilege is used, but there yet remain many good mill seats unimproved.

Hagerstown was laid out March 8, 1832, by Jacob Ulrich and Jonas Harris. Since that time there have been several additions made to the original plat—the last being made in 1868 by Joseph Replogle. There was a trading station here for some time previous to the location of the town, and Hagerstown soon became one of the most important points in the region. The completion of the Hagerstown canal, which was accomplished in 1847, largely increased the trade of the place, as direct communication with Cincinnati was thus given, and this town made the outlet for a very extensive farming section.

The town increased rapidly in population, and the country surrounding soon showed the advantages of canal transportation over the laborious and uncertain shipment by wagon; as with the increased facilities for getting farm products to market, the farming community were stimulated to greater exertions in bringing their lands under better cultivation. The thanks of the greater portion of eastern Indiana are due the energetic business men, who, in spite of discouragements of all kinds, brought the canal to completion. It proved, in its day, an invaluable assistant in developing the resources of this part of the State. However, it was soon found to be difficult to keep in order, owing to the great number of rapid streams which were tributary to it, and in time of freshets broke the banks. Several bills were got through the Legislature for the relief of the canal, and it was kept up at a great expense, until some time after a railroad was built to this place; that now known as the Chicago & Great Eastern branch of the Chicago, Columbus & Indiana Central Railroad, first called the Richmond, Hagerstown & Newcastle Railroad, which road was opened up for business to Hagerstown in 1853. Some time after this the banks of the canal again broke, and it was suffered to lie without repair. The building of the Bellefontaine Railroad, some twenty miles north, cut off a large part of the trade of Hagerstown, and for some years business languished and property declined in value until good property could be bought for prices ridiculously small. This depression continued several years, when, owing to the increasing population of the surrounding country, and the corresponding increase in agricultural products, trade revived and has been steadily growing ever since; and property went up rapidly in value. On the 1st of April, 1868, the Whitewater Valley Railroad was opened for business, and since that time the town has increased largely in population and business, it now being again almost the only outlet to Cincinnati, for one of the finest farming regions in the Western States. From its natural advantages—water power, healthfulness, and beauty of location, railroad communications and system of turnpikes—it must continue to grow steadily in the future. It is the terminus of the Whitewater Valley Railroad. The Chicago, Columbus & Indiana Central passes through it, and an effort is now being made to build a road from the northern part of the State to this place.

A considerable amount of building has been done in the last two or three years, and it is certain that the coming years will be marked with a greater activity in that direction than ever heretofore.

Hagerstown now contains three churches, Methodist, Presbyterian and Christian, a first-class academy under charge of James McNeill, A. M., which has an attendance of 275 pupils, a printing office, from which is issued the Hagerstown Journal, one lodge A. F. & A. M. (Hagerstown No. 49), two lodges I. O. O. F. (No. 25 and Hagerstown Encampment), and one lodge I. O. G. T. (Hoosier, No. 265), one carriage manufactory, one wagon maker, four blacksmiths, one flour mill, one planing mill and sash factory, one packing house (pork), four cabinet makers, one furniture wareroom, one tannery, one hardware and two drug stores, two stove and tinware dealers, one meat market, four boot and shoe shops, nine grocers, one bakery, two hotels, one marble works, two harness makers, one barber, six dry goods stores, two milliners, three tailors, three livery stables, a cornet band, one jeweler, one variety store, two lawyers and eight physicians.

TOWN COUNCIL.—E. Castator, President; T. N. Anderson, Obediah Lontz, Sol. Bowman, Councilmen; D. W. Mason, Treasurer; W. W. Woods, clerk, Wm. Castator, Marshal.

NEW GARDEN

"BRICK CHURCH CEMETERY"

NETTLE CREEK CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN CEMETERY

Nettle Creek Church of the Brethren, formerly known as the "German Baptist Brethren" is among the earliest congregations of that demonination in Indiana. A group was organized in 1820. During the next 25 years, members worshipped in homes, barns and groves along the Nettle Creek Valley. The name of the denomination was changed to the "Church of the Brethren" in 1908.

A brick building was begun in 1844, one and a half mile south of Hagerstown, Indiana (on old Rt. 1). The building, commonly known as the "Brick Church", was completed in 1845.

In 1875, it was torn down because of defects in the structure and a new building was erected. In 1928, a remodeling program was begun and completed 10 years later. The construction of the new sanctuary was begun in September, 1867 and completed in June, 1968.

This cemetery is in excellent condition under the care of Mr. Claude Fleming.
